There was a prevalence of heavy-weight men in the lighter vehicles, but the threatening weather caused many of the lady drivers to draw out. Mrs.

Dr. H. H. Kane risked a beautiful bonnet and gown to show off Mafeking, a recent acquisition. Miss Alice Bradley showed a beautiful pair of paifreys.

When the end of the line had passed Police Captain Kirchner called from the stand for Officer George M. Wood. The policeman, who had been detailed to the Speedway from Cantral Park squad, was surprised to find Inspector W. W.

McLaughlin awaiting him with a gold medal. The medal was the gift of the Road Drivers Association for his bravery in stopping more runaways than any man on the force. He has a recent of thirteen runaways since May I of last read and prosented with a gold wasch and chain. President Gugsen-heimer and Dr. Kane responded happily.
